

because my taste is good taste

misosouper

viva la vivabox!

spa-manicure-pedicure-vivabox

Every year since I was a wee teen, my grandmother has given me the best Christmas present: a gift certificate for a mani/pedi at our local salon. And right before the calendar flips over to the new year, I have hunkered down in my heated chair, cranked up the automassage, and let the ladies do their bidding. Lincoln Park After Dark? Yes, please. The present has now expanded to include her babysitting for my daughter, but the the sentiment and the luxury remain the same.

So now I want to play grandma for you: leave a comment below, describing in 10 words or less why you deserve a manicure and pedicure this holiday season. Along with my sage guest judges, Carrie of Threadbeaur and Rob of Grapeinabottle, I will judge the entries based on creativity, brevity, and wit. The winner will receive a fabulous spa manicure and pedicure Vivabox, filled with organic bath and body products by EO. Also included in the box—wait for it; this is the best part—is a Vivabox gift card, redeemable for a mani and pedi at one of over 4000 day spas worldwide. Vivaboxes (so genius! why didn't I think of them?) also come in yummy coffee, tea, and gourmet dinner versions, each with its own gift card redeemable for more treats. A wine box (with Wine Spectator) and perfume box (with Sephora) just launched, and I'm planning on gifting the lovely velvety boxes to both my mother-in-law and my boss (oh wait...that's me).

10 words or less; you deserve it. Ready, set, go!